WELCOME TO DCLX 2015!

The 2015 DCLX committee is excited to welcome you to the fourteenth annual Washington DC Lindy Exchange! This year we bring you great bands and the best DJs in the country. We hope you enjoy!

What is the Washington, DC Lindy Exchange, Inc?
 The Washington DC Lindy Exchange (DCLX) is an incorporated 501(c)(3) organization. We are an all-volunteer, nonprofit, educational organization composed of dancers living primarily within the metropolitan Washington DC area. We are dedicated to the promotion of Lindy Hop and the growth of the local and national scene. The DCLX committee strives to make your exchange the best. If you would like to help plan DCLX next year, we'd love to talk with you. The exchange simply cannot get off the ground without a dedicated group of volunteers that pulls the whole thing together. If you're interested, please reach out by emailing info@dclx.org. We look forward to talking with you!
